

Reimagining Black Motherhood:

A conversation about the future of Black maternal health in the United States

Join us for our virtual event!

The ACTIONS program at UCSF School of Nursing is proud to present Reimagining Black Motherhood: A conversation about the future of Black maternal health in the United States. This panel discussion will explore structural racism within maternal health care and its impact on Black mothers. This conversation is also an opportunity to envision ways to repair the harms done to Black women and find new ways to create new standards of maternal health care.

Speakers

Rachel Hardeman, PhD, MPH

Assistant Professor, Division of Health Policy & Management
University of Minnesota School of Public Health

Dani McClain

Author, "We Live for the We: The Political Power of Black Motherhood"
Contributing Writer at The Nation

Stephanie McLemore Bray (Moderator)

Nonprofit Executive
Creative Writer, Essayist

November 12, 2020 11:30am-12:30pm PT

Zoom Webinar

Register at <https://bit.ly/3e7Ujro>

UCSF School of Nursing

actions
Abortion Care Training Incubator
for Outstanding Nurse Scholars